

Aging and Disability Resource Connection (ADRC) of Oregon

The ADRC of Oregon is a collaborative public-private partnership that streamlines consumer access to a complicated and confusing aging and disability service delivery system. ADRC of Oregon services are free for people of all ages, incomes and disabilities. It raises visibility about the full range of options available, provides objective and trusted information and assistance, empowers people to make informed decisions, and helps people easily access services and support.

Outcomes reported by ADRC consumers

- Living in the place they most desire (82%)
- Have enough support to meet their needs and preferences (70%)
- More independent as a result (82%)
- Safer in their homes (80%)
- Expand or maintain activities (59%)
- Preserve their financial resources (67%)
- Found services they could afford (63%)

92% would recommend the ADRC to a friend or family member

Results from 2014 ADRC Consumer Satisfaction Survey, conducted by PSU's Institute on Aging
